RED STAG HUNTING IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC 2017

OFFER N. 3

A Red Stag in the hunting grounds of this offer

HUNTING GROUNDS N. 1

4,500 hectares of hunting grounds (3,500 ha are forest stands, 450 ha are farmland, predominantly meadows, and 305 ha are covered with water). Hunting area is encompassed between two rivers and offers unique atmosphere of floodplain forests which are interwoven with forest channels, oxbows and pools. The forests are complemented by ancient solitary oak trees. Red deer, fallow deer and wild boar are present in these hunting grounds. The strongest red deer trophies recently reach 205-210 CIC points. Record red deer trophy is 226 CIC points. A historical hunting lodge offers accommodation in a four-bed room and a double room for as many as six hunters. It also has a common room with an open fireplace, a kitchenette, shower and toilet. Further accommodation can be arranged in another lodge which offers two double rooms, a dining room with kitchen, bathroom and a toilet.
