THE HUNTING AREA

Mouflon hunting days will occur in open grounds in Southern Slovakia (around 180 km from Bratislava and 100 km from Budapest). These grounds – sizing around 16 thousands hectares – boast an excellent population of mouflons, red deer, fallow deer, roe deer and wild boars. Hunters are usually impressed by abundance of games and quality of trophies. The elevation of hunting area is from 100 to 800 m.a.s.l. with alternation of hills covered with mixed forests and wide valley mainly covered with meadows and fields. Hills have a volcanic origin and are built by typical volcanic rocks (andesite, liparite, tuff...) that have created a perfect habitat for mouflons. Many strong rams are hunted during each hunting season.
